

Dunfermline Folk Club Events

September 2019

11 John Ward Trio. Born from John's experience of life in a tough and gritty East Anglian fishing port along with boat builder Les Woodley they together bring performances that are home-spun and from the heart. Add in harmonies from Scots girl, Lynne, who hails from Clydeside, and the sound is complete. With 3-part harmonies, John's songs and traditional repertoire, accompanied by guitar, double bass, mandolin, accordion, harmonica, whistles and bodhran, and relaxed banter and humour.

see <http://www.johnward.org.uk/> Entry £8 (£6 for members)

18 Pernille and Stephen Quigg. The Scottish/Danish duo of Stephen and Pernille Quigg. Stephen Quigg is a well-established folksinger who has made a living playing music for over 40 years. The combination of the two voices in close harmony in songs whether traditional or contemporary interspersed with anecdotes and a touch of humour has received much praise from both audiences and organisers. A concert with The Quiggs is a chance to hear folksong in its original form - simple, yet highly expressive, beautiful harmonies and songs that seek the audience's participation. <http://www.stephenquigg.com/> Club singer Michael Back. Entry £8 (£6 for members)

25 Session. Sing a song, play a tune, tell us a story or listen and celebrate in style. Collection for the club.. Topic will be Decades

2 Caim Trio Heather Innes, Jacynth Hamill & Pauline Vallance, the three members of Caim harmony trio, may be separated by the Irish Sea but they are not divided musically. Pauline's roots in Scotland, Jacynth's in Northern Ireland and Heather's in Zimbabwe, Scotland, Northern Ireland, England and Australia all contribute to Caim's strong and varied traditional repertoire.see www.celticcaim.com Club singer Margaret Gillan. Entry £8 (£6 for members)

9 Corralach. Tony and George formed Corralach in 2011 and have a particular interest in keeping the vocal tradition alive, especially with harmony singing. They love songs that tell stories and paint pictures and have been aptly described as, 'Two old guys having fun'. Corralach sing a wide range of songs drawn from the tradition of Scotland, Ireland and America with a few self-penned offerings for good measure. The songs are accompanied by 12 or 6 string guitar, bouzouki, mandolin and 5 string banjo, although a number of songs are a capella. see www.corralach.co.uk/ Club singer Alex Black. Entry £8 (£6 for members)

16 Jenny Sturgeon Trio. Hailing from the north-east of Scotland, Jenny Sturgeon is a singer-songwriter and her passion for music lies in her interest in traditional folk song, combined with creating fresh, new compositions. Jenny's inspiration comes from folklore, historical events and observations of society, and having trained as a biologist nature creeps in to all her work. Jenny will be playing with multi-instrumentalist Jonny Hardie (Old Blind Dogs) and Charlie McKerron (Capercaillie, Session A9). www.jennysturgeonmusic.com Jenny Sturgeon Trio video <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NKzgwGY11Cs> Club singer Robin McLean. Entry £8 (£6 for members)

23 Dan McKinnon Visiting from Canada, Dan is "a true troubadour - one man, one guitar, and one train ticket, and one of the nicest folks on the scene. His songs are intelligent and lyrical, his voice superb and his guitar accompaniments accomplished." <http://www.jacey-bedford.com/danmckinnon.htm>. Club singer Ena Robertson Entry £9 (£7 for members)
