

Tickets can be bought from or reserved by contacting Jeanie Gardiner telephone 01383 725872.

Or by emailing dunferlinefolkclub@gmail.com

You can also buy tickets via Eventbrite – follow the links from our website:
dunferlinefolkclub.co.uk

We would like to thank all the performers, stewards, committee members and friends who give their time so generously to the club and the festival.

If you would like to hear or play or sing more, come along to the Folk Club which meets at 8pm on Wednesday evenings in The Glen Tavern.

Practical information:

Venue maps are available on our website www.dunferlinefolkclub.co.uk

Friday evening: the restaurant at The Glen Tavern (KY12 8AN) is on the ground floor but it is not wheelchair friendly. On-street parking is available and also in the park opposite.

The function hall at The City Hotel (KY12 8DA) is wheelchair accessible from the Glen Bridge car park. The function bar is down 4 steps from the hall. From the main hotel entrance on Bridge Street, there are stairs down to the function hall and bar. The function bar accepts CASH only.

Meals can be reserved in the City Hotel's Weavers Restaurant 01383 722538 and lighter snacks are available in the bar on Bridge Street (both wheelchair accessible from Bridge Street). Children are welcome in the Weavers Restaurant and in the function rooms. For accommodation, contact the City Hotel 01383 722538.

Parking is available in the adjacent Glen Bridge car park. (maximum stay 3 hrs). Long term free parking is available on streets outside the immediate city centre.

Dunferline Folk Weekend

Friday 26th to Sunday
28th October 2018

Concerts, sessions, workshop, historic walk with songs

Yard of Ale:

Peter Gillan, Alistair McDougald and Walter Mowat- the "folk and fun band" from the Lothians perform a great mixture of folk, country, traditional and contemporary music with plenty of close harmony and cheeky banter.

Tripple:

Cait, Annie and Jill – a harmony group based in NE Scotland singing a wide range of old, and contemporary, Scots and Irish songs with the odd wee tune from across the pond.

Also featuring Rob Griffith, Fiona and Alison – The McLean Sisters, Gifford Lind with Guy Burgess and Alex Black.

Friday 26th October at the Glen Tavern

Evening Session in the Glen Tavern will start with a meal at 7 pm – everyone welcome! A £5 non-returnable deposit required, followed by a Session at around 8:30 to 11 pm. Contact Helen Aitken at a club night or Jeanie Gardiner as soon as possible but by 17th October at the very latest. Places are limited.

===== ♪ ===== ♪ =====

Saturday/Sunday. All events will be held in the City Hotel, Pittencrieff Suite.

Saturday 27th October.

Noon Session starts in the function bar and continues to about 6 pm. Free to attend.

2 pm - 3:45 pm Harmony workshop in the function room – led by Tripple.

If you want to learn more about harmony singing come along to this workshop with Tripple. Suitable for new and experienced singers, this workshop will offer an opportunity to sing while gaining confidence in finding harmonies. Songs will be taught by ear (words provided) and at least one will be taken from the Dunfermline Song book.

Cost £5. Please reserve your place in advance.

6 pm Tea break. A buffet will be available for a small charge

7:30 pm Concert with Yard of Ale and Tripple. MC is Gifford Lind

Concert Tickets £12 (£10 for folk club members)

Sunday 28th October at the City Hotel.

10:30 Walk in historic Dunfermline with songs.

Gather for coffee/tea in the function hall of the City Hotel ready to head out on the walk (or to have a “virtual walk” in the hotel if the weather is bad). The walk will start at 11 and finish around 12:30 and start at Dunfermline Abbey and end at the site of the original Dunfermline folk club at the Howff.

Cost £3. Please reserve your place (and tea/coffee) in advance.

Session starts at 12:30 in the function bar and continues until 5:30 pm. Free to attend.

4 pm A performance from the Fallon Academy of Irish Dance. Free to attend

5:30 pm Tea break. A buffet will be available for a small charge

7 pm Concert

featuring Rob Griffith singer and songwriter, the McLean Sisters (Fiona Cook and Alison Halliday, fiddlers from Kincardine) and Gifford Lind with Alex Black and Guy Burgess.

MC is Michael Back

Also featuring club members Colm O’Rourke, Luci McLeman, Isobel Watson and Robin McLean.

Concert Tickets £8 (£6 for folk club members)

There will be a traditional raffle at each concert.

